

Monrose Classical Academy

Board Member Application/ Questionnaire Template

On behalf of the current Montrose Classical Academy Board of Directors, we thank you for your interest in joining our Board. The following application/ questionnaire offers us an opportunity to know more about you, your skills, attributes and what you would bring to our Board. It also gives you a sense of what matters to us at Montrose Classical Academy. The goal of our process is to determine if we are a good fit for each other – your level of commitment and ability to deliver on our expectations. We look forward to reviewing your application/ questionnaire with the same level of thought and care that you put into it.

TIME

We are currently a Founding Board, which requires more time and dedication than when we transition to a Governing Board in August 2026. In an initial phone call and interview from one of the existing Board members, we will chat with you on what time commitment may be involved. Are there any concerns or potential conflicts that may serve as impediments to a potential time commitment?
